GLOSSARY OF DEFINED TERMS

Introduction

Standards of Generally Recognised Accounting Practice

The Accounting Standards Board (the Board) is required in terms of the Public Finance Management Act, Act No. 1 of 1999, as amended (PFMA), to determine generally recognised accounting practice referred to as Standards of Generally Recognised Accounting Practice (GRAP).

The Board must determine GRAP for:

- (a) departments (including national and provincial and government components);
- (b) public entities;
- (c) trading entities (as defined in the PFMA);
- (d) constitutional institutions;
- (e) municipalities and boards, commissions, companies, corporations, funds or other entities under the ownership control of a municipality; and
- (f) Parliament and the provincial legislatures.

The above are collectively referred to as “entities” in Standards of GRAP.

The Board has approved the application of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS[®] Standards) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board[®] for:

- (a) public entities that meet the criteria outlined in the Directive on The Selection of an Appropriate Reporting Framework by Public Entities; and
- (b) entities under the ownership control of any of these entities.

Glossary of Defined Terms

The Glossary of Defined Terms (the Glossary) contains terms defined in the Standards of GRAP, the Interpretations of Standards of GRAP and the Directives issued by the Board as at 1 April 2020.

Where multiple definitions of the same term exist, the Glossary indicates all the Standards of GRAP, the Interpretations of Standards of GRAP and the Directives in which the term appears and the definition that applies to that particular Standard of GRAP, Interpretation of Standards of GRAP or Directive.

References to the Standards of GRAP are by Standard number and paragraph number. Similarly, the reference to the Interpretations of Standards of GRAP and Directives are by Interpretation or Directive number. For example, “1.05” refers users to the Standard of GRAP on Presentation of Financial Statements (GRAP 1), paragraph .05.

accounting basis	The accrual or cash basis of accounting.	24.06
accounting policies	The specific principles, bases, conventions, rules and practices applied by an entity in preparing and presenting financial statements.	1.05 3.04 accrual basis	A basis of accounting under which transactions, other events and conditions are recognised when they occur (and not only when cash or its equivalent is received or paid). Therefore, the transactions, other events or conditions are recorded in the accounting records and recognised in the financial statements of the periods to which they relate. The elements recognised under accrual accounting are assets, liabilities, net assets, revenue and expenses.	1.05 3.04 acquiree	The entity and/or the functions that the acquirer obtains control of in a transfer of functions.	106.10 acquirer	The entity that obtains control of the acquiree or transferor.	105.09 106.10 acquisition cost	When an entity initially recognises assets such as items of property, plant and equipment, investment properties, intangible assets and heritage assets using the Standards of GRAP, it measures those assets using either cost (if the asset is acquired in an exchange transaction) or at fair value (if the asset is acquired in a non-exchange transaction). This cost or fair value on initial acquisition of an asset or when the cost of an asset needs to be determined on the transfer date or the merger date is the acquisition cost.	D7.05 acquisition date	The date on which the acquirer obtains control of the acquiree.	106.10 active market	A market in which all the following conditions exist: (a) the items traded in the market are homogeneous; (b) willing buyers and sellers can normally be found at any time; and (c) prices are available to the public.	31.11

actuarial gains and losses	Comprise: (a) experience adjustments (the effects of differences between the previous actuarial assumptions and what has actually occurred); and (b) the effects of changes in actuarial assumptions.	25.08 agent	An entity that has been directed by another entity (a principal), through a binding arrangement, to undertake transactions with third parties on behalf of the principal and for the benefit of the principal.	109.05 agricultural activity	The management by an entity of the biological transformation and harvest of biological assets for: (a) sale, (b) distribution at no charge or for a nominal charge; or (c) conversion into agriculture produce or into additional biological assets for sale or distribution at no charge or for a nominal charge.	27.07 110.08 agricultural produce	The harvested produce of the entity's biological assets.	27.07
amortisation	The systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an intangible asset over its useful life.	31.11
amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability	The amount at which the financial asset or financial liability is measured at initial recognition minus principal repayments, plus or minus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, and minus any reduction (directly or through the use of an allowance account) for impairment or uncollectability.	104.13
appropriation	An authorisation granted by Parliament, the legislatures, municipal councils or other relevant authority approving the budget to allocate funds for purposes specified by the relevant authority.	24.06
approved budget	The expenditure authority derived from laws, appropriation bills, regulations and other decisions related to the anticipated revenue or receipts for the budgetary period.	24.06

assets held by a long-term employee benefit fund	Assets (other than non-transferable financial instruments issued by the reporting entity) that: (a) are held by an entity (a fund) that is legally separate from the reporting entity and exists solely to pay or fund employee benefits; and (b) are available to be used only to pay or fund employee benefits, are not available to the reporting entity's own creditors (even in liquidation), and cannot be returned to the reporting entity, unless either: (i) the remaining assets of the fund are sufficient to meet all the related employee benefit obligations of the plan or the reporting entity; or (ii) the assets are returned to the reporting entity to reimburse it for employee benefits already paid.	25.08
associate	An entity over which the investor has significant influence.	36.06

bearer plant	A living plant that: (a) is used in the production or supply of agricultural produce; (b) is expected to bear produce for more than one period; and (c) has a remote likelihood of being sold as agricultural produce, except for incidental scrap sales.	17.06 27.07 110.08 benefits	The advantages an entity obtains from its involvement with other entities. Benefits may be financial or non-financial. The actual impact of an entity's involvement with another entity can have positive or negative aspects.	35.11 binding arrangement	An arrangement that confers enforceable rights and obligations on the parties to the arrangement as if it were in the form of a contract. It includes rights from contracts or other legal rights.	11.08 19.17 23.06 25.08 31.11 35.11 36.06 37.05 38.06 105.09 106.10 107.06 109.05 biological asset	A living animal or plant.	27.07 biological transformation	The processes of growth, degeneration, production, and procreation that cause qualitative or quantitative changes in a biological asset.	27.07 110.08
borrowing costs	Interest and other expenses incurred by an entity in connection with the borrowing of funds.	5.04 budgetary basis	The accrual, cash or other basis of accounting adopted in the budget approved by the legislative body.	24.06

carrying amount	The amount at which an asset is recognised after deducting accumulated impairment losses.	103.04 carrying amount	The amount at which an asset is recognised after deducting any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.	17.06 110.08 carrying amount	The amount at which an asset is recognised in the statement of financial position.	16.05 108.05 carrying amount of a liability	The amount at which a liability is recognised in the statement of financial position.	10.06 carrying amount of an asset	The amount at which an asset is recognised in the statement of financial position after deducting any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses thereon.	10.06 carrying amount of an asset or liability	The amount at which an asset or liability is recognised in the statement of financial position.	105.09 107.06
cash	Cash on hand and demand deposits.	2.07
cash basis	A basis of accounting that recognises transactions and other events only when cash is received or paid.	24.06
cash equivalents	Short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.	2.07
cash flows	Inflows and outflows of cash and cash equivalents.	2.07 cash-generating assets	Assets used with the objective of generating a commercial return. Commercial return means that positive cash flows are expected to be significantly higher than the cost of the asset.	21.10 26.10
cash-generating assets	Assets managed with the objective of generating a commercial return.	100.04
cash-generating unit	The smallest identifiable group of assets used with the objective of generating a commercial return that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.	26.10 100.04 change in accounting estimate	An adjustment of the carrying amount of an asset or a liability, or the amount of the periodic consumption of an asset, that results from the assessment of the present status of, and expected future benefits and obligations associated with, assets and liabilities. Changes in accounting estimates result from new information or new developments and, accordingly, are not corrections of errors.	3.04 class of assets	A grouping of assets of a similar nature or function in an entity's operations that is shown as a single item for the purpose of disclosure in the financial statements.	17.06 103.04 close members of the family of a person	Those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by that person in their dealings with the entity. As a minimum, a person is considered to be a close member of the family of another person if they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) are married or live together in a relationship similar to a marriage; or (b) are separated by no more than two degrees of natural or legal consanguinity or affinity. 	20.10 closing rate	The spot exchange rate at the reporting date.	4.07 combined entity	A new reporting entity formed from the combination of two or more entities.	107.06

combining entities	The entities that are combined for the mutual sharing of risks and benefits in a merger.	107.06 commencement of the lease term	The date from which the lessee is entitled to exercise its right to use the leased asset. It is the date of initial recognition of the lease (i.e. the recognition of the assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses resulting from the lease, as appropriate).	13.06 commercial return	Positive cash flows are expected to be significantly higher than the cost of the asset.	26.10 comparable basis	The actual amounts presented on the same accounting basis, same classification basis, for the same entities and for the same period as the approved budget.	24.06 component of an entity	The operations and cash flows that can be clearly distinguished, operationally and for financial reporting purposes, from the rest of the entity.	100.04 composite social security programmes	Social security programmes established by legislation; and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) operate as multi-employer plans to provide post-employment benefits; as well as to 	25.08

	(b) provide benefits that are not consideration in exchange for service rendered by employees.
concessionary loan	A loan granted to or received by an entity on terms that are not market related.	23.06 104.13 conditions	Stipulations that specify that the future economic benefits or service potential embodied in the asset is required to be consumed by the recipient as specified or future economic benefits or service potential must be returned to the transferor.	23.06 consolidated financial statements	The financial statements of an economic entity in which the assets, liabilities, net assets, revenue, expenses and cash flows of the controlling entity and its controlled entities are presented as those of a single economic entity.	34.04 35.11 36.06 construction contract	A contract, or a similar binding arrangement, specifically negotiated for the construction of an asset or a combination of assets that are closely interrelated or interdependent in terms of their design, technology and function or their ultimate purpose or use.	11.08 constructive obligation	An obligation that derives from an entity's actions where: (a) by an established pattern of past practice, published policies or a sufficiently specific current statement, the entity has indicated to other parties that it will accept certain responsibilities; and (b) as a result, the entity has created a valid expectation on the part of those other parties that it will discharge those responsibilities.	19.17
contingent asset	A possible asset that arises from past events, and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity.	19.17
contingent consideration	Usually, an obligation of the acquirer to transfer additional assets or a residual interest to the former owners of an acquiree as part of the exchange for control of the acquiree if specified future events occur or conditions are met. However, contingent consideration also may give the acquirer the right to the return of previously transferred consideration if specified conditions are met.	106.10
contingent liability	(a) A possible obligation that arises from past events, and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence	19.17

	or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or (b) A present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because: (i) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits or service potential will be required to settle the obligation; or (ii) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability. contingent rent	That portion of the lease payments that is not fixed in amount but is based on the future amount of a factor that changes other than with the passage of time (e.g. percentage of future sales, amount of future use, future price indices, and future market rates of interest).	13.06 contractor	An entity that performs construction work pursuant to a construction contract.	11.08 contributions from owners	Future economic benefits or service potential that has been contributed to the entity by parties external to the entity, other than those that result in liabilities of the entity, that establish a financial interest in the net assets of the entity, which: (a) conveys entitlement both to distributions of future economic benefits or service potential by the entity during its life, such distributions being at the discretion of the owners or their representatives, and to distributions of any excess of assets over liabilities in the event of the entity being wound up; and/or (b) can be sold, exchanged, transferred or redeemed.	1.05
control	An entity controls another entity when the entity is exposed, or has rights, to variable benefits from its involvement with the other entity and has the ability to affect the nature or amount of those benefits through its power over the other entity.	20.10 35.11
controlled entity	An entity, including an unincorporated entity such as a partnership, that is controlled by another entity (known as the controlling entity).	35.11

controlling entity	An entity that controls one or more entities.	35.11
cost (of a living or non-living resource)	The amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of the other consideration given to acquire an asset at the time of its acquisition or development and, where applicable, the amount attributed to the asset when initially recognised in accordance with the specific requirements of other Standards of GRAP.	110.08 cost method (for statutory receivables)	The method used that requires such receivables to be measured at their transaction amount, plus any accrued interest or other charges (where applicable) and, less any accumulated impairment losses and any amounts derecognised.	108.05 cost plus or cost based contract	A construction contract in which the contractor is reimbursed for allowable or otherwise defined costs and, in the case of a commercially-based contract, an additional percentage of these costs or a fixed fee, if any.	11.08 costs of disposal	Incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset, excluding finance costs and income tax expense.	21.10 26.10 costs to sell	The incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset, excluding finance costs and income taxes. Disposal may occur through sale or through distribution at no charge or for a nominal charge.	27.07 credit risk	The risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation.	104.13
current asset	An entity shall classify an asset as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria: (a) it is expected to be realised in, or is held for sale or consumption in, the entity's normal operating cycle; (b) it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;	1.68

	(c) it is expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting date; or (d) it is cash or a cash equivalent asset (as defined in GRAP 2) unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date. currency risk	The risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.	104.13
current replacement cost	The cost the entity would incur to acquire the asset on the reporting date.	12.07
current service cost	The increase in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from employee service in the current period.	25.08 curtailment (of employee benefit obligations)	Occurs when an entity either: (a) is demonstrably committed to make a significant reduction in the number of employees covered by a plan; or (b) amends the terms of a defined benefit plan so that a significant element of future service by current employees will no longer qualify for benefits, or will qualify only for reduced benefits.	25.126

decision maker	An entity with decision making rights that is either a principal or an agent for other parties.	35.11
deemed cost	A surrogate value for the cost or fair value of an asset at its initial acquisition, and is determined by reference to the fair value of the asset at the date of adopting the Standards of GRAP or on the transfer date or the merger date (measurement date).	D7.05 defined benefit plans	Post-employment benefit plans other than defined contribution plans.	25.08 defined contribution plans	Post-employment benefit plans under which an entity pays fixed contributions into a separate entity (a fund) and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employee benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior periods.	25.08
depreciable amount	The cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its residual value.	17.06 110.08 depreciation	The systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an asset over its useful life.	17.06 110.08
derecognition	The removal of a previously recognised financial asset or financial liability from an entity's statement of financial position.	104.13
derivative	A financial instrument or other contract within the scope of GRAP 104 with all three of the following characteristics: (a) Its value changes in response to the change in a specified interest rate, financial instrument price, commodity price, foreign exchange rate, index of prices or rates, credit rating or credit index, or other variable, provided in the case of a non-financial variable that the variable is not specific to a party to the contract (sometimes called the "underlying"). (b) It requires no initial net investment or an initial net investment that is smaller than would be required for other types of contracts that would be expected to have a similar response to changes in market factors. (c) It is settled at a future date.	104.13 development	The application of research findings or other knowledge to a plan or design for the production of new or substantially improved	31.11 materials, devices, products, processes, systems or services before the start of production or use.

discontinued operation	A component of an entity that has been disposed of and: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) represents a distinguishable activity, group of activities or geographical area of operations; (b) is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of a distinguishable activity, group of activities or geographical area of operations; or (c) is a controlled entity acquired exclusively with a view to resale. 	100.04

e
economic entity	A group of entities comprising a controlling entity and one or more controlled entities.	1.05 4.07 economic entity	A controlling entity and its controlled entities.	35.11
economic life	Either: (a) the period over which an asset is expected to yield economic benefits or service potential to one or more users; or (b) the number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from the asset by one or more users.	13.06 effective interest method	A method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or a financial liability (or group of financial assets or financial liabilities) and of allocating the interest income or interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument or, when appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount of the financial asset or financial liability. When calculating the effective interest rate, an entity shall estimate cash flows considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, call and similar options) but shall not consider future credit losses. The calculation includes all fees and points paid or received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate (see the Standard of GRAP on Revenue from Exchange Transactions (GRAP 9)), transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts. There is a presumption that the cash flows and the expected life of a group of similar financial instruments can be estimated reliably. However, in those rare cases when it is not possible to reliably estimate the cash flows or the expected life of a financial instrument (or group of financial instruments), the entity shall use the contractual cash flows over the full contractual term of the financial instrument (or group of financial instruments).	104.13
employee benefits	All forms of consideration given by an entity in exchange for service rendered by employees.	25.08 entity-specific value	The present value or service potential of the benefits an entity expects to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its	17.06 disposal at the end of its useful life or expects to incur when settling a liability.

equity method	A method of accounting whereby the investment is initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter for the post-acquisition change in the investor's share of the investee's net assets. The investor's surplus or deficit includes its share of the investee's surplus or deficit and the investor's net assets includes its share of changes in the investee's net assets that have not been recognised in the investee's surplus or deficit.	34.04 36.06 events after the reporting date	Those events, both favourable and unfavourable, that occur between the reporting date and the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue. Two types of events can be identified: (a) those that provide evidence of conditions that existed at the reporting date (adjusting events after the reporting date); and (b) those that are indicative of conditions that arose after the reporting date (non-adjusting events after the reporting date).	14.03 exchange difference	The difference resulting from translating a given number of units of one currency into another currency at different exchange rates.	4.07 exchange rate	The ratio of exchange for two currencies.	4.07 exchange transactions	Transactions in which one entity receives assets or services, or has liabilities extinguished, and directly gives approximately equal value (primarily in the form of cash, goods, services, or use of assets) to another entity in exchange.	1.05 9.12 12.07 16.05 23.06 executory contracts	Contracts under which neither party has performed any of its obligations or both parties have partially performed their obligations to an equal extent.	19.17 expenses	Decreases in economic benefits or service potential during the reporting period in the form of outflows or consumption of assets or incurrences of liabilities that result in decreases in net assets, other than those relating to distributions to owners.	1.05 expenses paid through the tax system	Amounts that are available to beneficiaries regardless of whether or not they pay taxes.	23.06

experience adjustments	The effects of differences between the previous actuarial assumptions and what has actually occurred.	25.08
-------------------------------	---	-------

fair value	The amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction.	4.07 9.12 12.07 13.06 16.05 103.04 104.13 106.10 110.08
fair value less costs to sell	The amount obtainable from the sale of an asset in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, less the costs of disposal.	21.10 26.10
final budget	The approved budget adjusted for transfers, allocations, supplemental appropriations, and other changes applicable to the budget period.	24.06 finance lease	A lease that transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset. Title may or may not eventually be transferred.	13.06 financial asset	Any asset that is: (a) Cash; (b) A residual interest of another entity; or (c) A contractual right to: (i) receive cash or another financial asset from another entity; or (ii) exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially favourable to the entity.	104.13 financial guarantee contract	A contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the original or modified terms of a debt instrument.	19.17 104.13 financial instrument	Any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or a residual interest of another entity.	104.13

financial instruments at amortised cost	Non-derivative financial assets or non-derivative financial liabilities that have fixed or determinable payments, excluding those instruments that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the entity designates at fair value at initial recognition in accordance with paragraph .17; or (b) are held for trading. 	104.14 financial instruments at cost	Investments in residual interests that do not have a quoted market price in an active market, and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured.	104.14 financial instruments at fair value	Financial assets or financial liabilities that are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) derivatives; (aA) contingent consideration of an acquirer in a transfer of functions between entities not under common control to which the Standard of GRAP on Transfer of Functions Between Entities Not Under Common Control (GRAP 106) applies; (b) combined instruments that are designated at fair value in accordance with paragraphs .20 or .21; (c) instruments held for trading. A financial instrument is held for trading if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) it is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing it in the near-term; or (ii) on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of a recent actual pattern of short term profit-taking; (d) non-derivative financial assets or financial liabilities with fixed or determinable payments that are designated at fair value at initial recognition in accordance with paragraph .17; and (e) financial instruments that do not meet the definition of financial instruments at amortised cost or financial instruments at cost. 	104.14 financial liability	Any liability that is a contractual obligation to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) deliver cash or another financial asset to another entity; or (b) exchange financial assets or financial liabilities under conditions that are potentially unfavourable to the entity. 	104.13
